ments were laid before the Senate, and ordered to be printed. Mr. CLEMENS gave notice of a joint resolu tion conferring the brevet rank of lieutenant general on Major General Scott. Mr. Fish gave notice of a bill for a branch mint in New York; and Mr. Gwin introduced a bill for one in California. Mr. FOOTE introduced his joint resolution of sympathy for the Irish exiled patriots.

Also his resolution declaring the Compre mise measures a definitive settlement of the slavery question; which was made the special order for Monday next.

Mr. HALE offered a resolution inquiring whether there had been any violations of the law abolishing flogging in the navy.

Mr. Foots, in consequence of the unexpected opposition, and the want of time for the House to act on it, asked leave to withdraw the Kossuth reception resolution; and the leave was granted. Mr. SEWARD gave notice of a similar resolution; and then the Senate adjourned.

House of Representatives .- This, body stands adjourned until Saturday.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS .- The Intelligencer this morning gives a report of a column and a third, the Republic two and a fifth, and the Union quotes and adopts our clear and concise after the adjournment. This latter is, in our that is not an authorized and compensated reporter of proceedings and debates.

THE POOR .- "Please, Mr. Telegraph,"-(thus writes a fair and charitable correspondent)-"say a word to the dear public to prepare them for the Fair of the Ladies' Union Benevolent Society, commencing on Monday next, December 8, at Odd-Fellows' Hall. Just tell them, in your felicitous way, what real benefit they will confer upon the suffering poor, while, at the same time, the beautiful articles to be found there will suit the taste and please the eye of the dear ones' who expect to be remembered at Christmas times. If it be a greater pleasure to give than to receive, surely the poor, at this season, should be remembered by those whose homes are exempt from the ills of poverty. The 'Benevolent Society' is too well known to say more than this: it assists the poor and destitute of all denominations, whose claims are poverty and suffering." We cannot strengthen this appeal, and will not mar it by a word.

THE DIFFERENCE .- The National Intelligences quotes the rumor that has reached us from California, to the effect that three vessels had departed from San Francisco for the Sandwich Islands, for the purpose of "taking possession of them either by sussion or force." The Intelligencer remarks ironically that "it is of some consequence as showing the progressive spirit of our people in California." When, however, a ferocious and vindictive regal tyrant of the Old World destroys the lives of thousands of the people of either a neighboring or distant nation, destroys its nationality, and subdues, conquers and humbles-not anuexes it as a constituent part of itself-the Intelligencer always thinks with Mr. Toots that it is "of no

INTERESTING LECTURES. - The Harrisburg Union says that Lieut. G. W. May, late of the United States Army, has been delivering, in esting lectures, descriptive of the battles of erty. Mexico, and the manners and customs of the people of that interesting country. These lectures were attended by large audiences, who were greatly delighted, and at their close a highly complimentary resolution was moved and unanadopted. "We are free to admit." says the Union, "that these were the most interesting lectures we ever listened to, and trust that the distinguished lecturer may be liberally encouraged wherever he may go." We hope so too. Instruction by lectures may be made very interesting and profitable; and many an educated gentleman, not knowing what else to do, may turn his talents to account in this wise. Why are not lecturers induced to appear frequently in our public halls?

A VALUABLE INVENTION .- A correspondent of the North Bridgewater Gazette describes an experiment tried on the Boston and Providence railroad track, for the purpose of ascertaining if letters can be sent to a distance by means of atmospheric pressure. To test the practicability of the theory, there was laid for about one mile a pipe, through which the paper or papers were to pass. I am told that those who have experimented are of opinion that communication can be given in this manner from Boston to New York in four minutes, and that they but very fair considering his opponent strove to are quite sure of success.

THE AFFAIR OF THE PROMETHEUS .- The Republic of this morning says: "We are gratified to announce that, immediately on the receipt of the intelligence of the firing on this it is, but for its extension also. vessel by the British brig-of-war Express, a competent naval force was, by the President's direction, ordered to repair to San Juan de Nicaragua, to protect American vessels from like outrages for the future, and inquiries were addressed to the British government to ascertain outrages for the future, and inquiries were adressed to the British government to ascertain whether the conduct of the commander of the Express was prompted by orders from his government."

SENATOR FROM FLORIDA.—The grounds of the contest between Messrs. Yulee and Mallory appear to be little understood. They are represented to be various. Mr. Yulee, according to a statement before us, contends that blank votes in a legislature ought to be counted to form a quorum, at least for the election of officers. The legislature consisted of fifty-nine members, and on the ballot upon which Mr. Yulee contends he was elected, twenty-nine votes were cast for him, and the same number of blank votes were cast. On the next ballot, or upon the same day before adjournment, Mr. Mallory received 30 votes against 28 for other persons, and was declared elected. In his printed memorial, Mr. Yulee states that by the general parliamentary law and the practice of such bodies on very momentous occasions, blank votes may be counted to make a quorum. He cites many instances in State legislation where such has been the practice, and says that in the first election of Jefferson the contest between him and Aaron Burr was decided by the four friends of the latter in the Maryland delegation throwing blank votes for him, and the same number, composing half of the votes of the State. throwing half their votes for Jefferson. The voice of the State was in this way considered to have been declared for him, and that turning the long-poised balance in his favor, he was chosen President of the United States.

SHALL SIXTH STREET BE CUT IN TWAIN?-A correspondent complains of the interruption of this street by closing in the public grounds south of the canal. He protests against this measure as impolitic and illegal, and adduces report, given yesterday afternoon half an hour many authorities in support of his views. We may soon find space for his communication : opinion, quite ample enough for any journal but would, in the mean time, suggest to our able and attentive Commissioner of Public Buildings the propriety of giving serious consideration to the subject. Our correspondent assures us that many property-holders north and south of the canal, and other citizens, are determined to oppose the plan of obstructing this highway. They do not believe that the public promenades can be benefitted by such an arrangement, but would not, in any event, sacrifice utility for such a purpose. They contend that Sixth street should be open throughout its whole length, and that a good iron bridge should be at once placed over the canal to afford the requisite thoroughfare to the pub-

A HUMANE ORDER. -- An eminent merchant of Boston, the Atlas states, in his instructions to the captains of his vessels, requires that a man shall be sent aloft every morning at daylight, and every evening before sunset, to scan the horizon, to see if any vessels are in the vicinity requiring assistance. The Courier, approving of the order, suggests further, that every time the helm is relieved the man relieved should be sent aloft, and his report entered as regularly into the log-book as the in distress show that they have frequently been and, were a regular system of lookouts introduced into all our ships, it would be the means of Governor Bell: that city, a series of brilliant and highly inter- of saving many lives and much valuable prop-

Boston, December 3 .- Letters from Buenos Ayres state that Oribe had surrendered, and that his officers had taken refuge on board of foreign vessels of war at Bucci. This was accomplished without firing a shot and without aid from the Brazilian forces.

From Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, December 2 .- Advices have peen received from the city of Mexico to the 15th ult. The news of the abandonment of the siege of Matamoros by Carvajal had occasioned great rejoicing.

If by various indications it has been nade known that the Administration has been indisposed to heroise Kossuth, 'it does not necessarily follow that Mr. Webster participates in their feelings. Mr. Foote's resolution has been withdrawn. We are sorry for this; but perhaps it is well enough to know whose thunder we are dealing in before we launch it forth. But never mind: Congressional resolutions are solved, and Kossuth will encounter a glorious reception.

Ber Everybody is every day looking through ur columns to see what everybody else has for sale; and nobody is anybody, or deserves to sell to anybody, who does not advertise his, her or their goods, wares, and merchandise, in the columns aforesaid of the American Telegraph.

A SERENADE. - Last night, after the adjournment of the Jackson Democratic Association, the members of that body, (numbering about two hundred,) accompanied by the celebrated Infantry Band, under the direction of Mr. Marsoletti, proceeded to pay their respects to the Hon. Linn Boyd, Speaker of the House of Representatives, at the Potomac House. After the Band had executed two or three beautiful airs. the honorable gentleman made his appearance, and welcomed the party in a very neat and appropriate speech, concluding by cordially inviting them to "come in." On entering the large dining hall, the company were greeted with a profusion of good things; and, after having partaken of them, the "flow of soul" commenced. Mr. F. McNerhany proposed a glowing sentiment in compliment to the noblehearted Kentuckian, who made an excellent Samuel Payne and Elias Sims, charged with speech in response. Capt. Robinson also made a speech; and Mr. J. D. Hoover, president of Sonny Matthews and Sam. Cooper, charged the Association, was called out by a complimenwith an assault, were found not guilty-Latham | tary sentiment offered by Mr. McNerhany, and made a handsome acknowledgment. The following toast by Mr. J. F. Ennis was enthusiastically received: "The Hon. Linn Boyd: The record of his Congressional career is his proudest monument, and the profusion of his table evidences the liberality of his heart." Having spent a truly delightful hour at the "Potomac," the company proceeded to the house of Mr. McKnew, who did not appear on account of indisposition, and thence visited (stopping on their way at the Union office) the residences of Mr. J. D. Hoover and Mr. F. McNerhany, by both of whom they were hospitably entertained. MESSAGE OF THE GOVERNOR OF TEXAS .- This ship's progress. The reports of many vessels document, dated November 10, is very long and ably written. Its most important part relates passed by vessels which took no notice of them; to the bonds of the State. The following extract will serve to reveal the views and policy

> "The republic of Texas having executed her bonds and other evidences of debt in an exceedingly dark and gloomy period of her history, it became necessary to issue them for nominal amounts, bearing no sort of proportion to the amounts actually received, and to pledge her resources, arising mainly at that time from her tion of the government at the time they were

The evident meaning and contemplation of that act was, that the holders of the claims should be paid in accordance with the Board, subject to the revision of the Legislature; and the amount so ascertained was considered as all that was actually due from the State to her several creditors."

PROBABLE INFANTICIDE.-A new-born white nfant was found yesterday at the foot of College Hill, between 14th and 15th streets, by a couple of boys and a colored man. It was completely sewed up in cloths of various kinds. An inquest will be held this afternoon.

Great Medical Discovery!

DR. J. S. ROSE'S NERVOUS CORDIAL,

FOR ALL NERVOUS CONDITIONS OF THE SYSsince which time I have found but little difficulty in curing most NERVOUS DISEASES, but very recently I have added an ingredient which acts like magic in rendering my NERVOUS CORDIAL far more certain in curring Nervous Tremor of the Muscles, Shaking of the Head, Palpitation, Platulence, Heart-burn, Tie Dolor, or Pain in the Face, with Twitchings of the Muscles or Flesh, Wakefulness, Heart Diseases, Neuralgis, and for the mind or body, affected by care, labor or study. This truly wonderful Medicine, from its peculiar happy effect in aliaying the most violent Nervous affections, and completely eradicating them from the system, may justly be termed the grandest discovery in the science of Medicine.
It subdues and averts all those NERVOUS DISEASES, over which the most profound medical skill has hitherto had no control. It is a grand restorer in building up a weak constitution, already worn down by disease and debilitated by other Medicine; its invigorating properties act like a charm, and its beneficial effects are almost miraculous. The weak, the nervous, and those suffering with constant pains and uneasiness, are frequently cured by using a single bottle.
